Belmont University Teaching Center
Communities of Practice

Form for Proposals

Is there a question that keeps surfacing for you around issues of pedagogy? Join with a small group of colleagues to pursue answers!

Faculty are invited to submit ideas for team mentoring projects/grants. A call for proposals will be early in the fall semester and a few small grants (of about $250 - $500) will be awarded. Sharing of their findings will take place at a Teaching Center Lunch Discussion in the Spring (February 8th) and through various others venues such as the website, newsletter, and workshops.

These Communities of Practice/teams could take a variety of mentoring forms (peer and near-peer, cross-disciplinary, and intra- and inter-institutional). They also could focus on a wide variety of topics such as teaching strategies, faith and pedagogy, service learning, small group work, technology and learning, civility in the classroom, adult learners, experiential learning, course redesign, authentic assessment, etc.

Note: All applications must be submitted electronically to Nanci.alsup@belmont.edu

Deadline: September 17, 2010 at 4:00 p.m.
If an award is granted, a brief report will be due to the Teaching Center upon completion of the work.

Theme___________________________________________________________

Driving Question or Questions_________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Facilitator:

Name______________________________________________________________

Title/Position________________________________________________________

Department_______________________ E-Mail______________________________

Phone_____________________________
Participants:

(1) Name______________________________
Title/Position______________________________________________
Department___________________________  E-Mail___________________________
Phone__________________________________

(2) Name_____________________________________________________
Title/Position______________________________________________
Department___________________________  E-Mail___________________________
Phone__________________________________

(3) Name_____________________________________________________
Title/Position______________________________________________
Department___________________________  E-Mail___________________________
Phone__________________________________

(4) Name_____________________________________________________
Title/Position______________________________________________
Department___________________________  E-Mail___________________________
Phone__________________________________

*If there are additional participants, copy and paste and include the required information.
Please respond to the following questions:
In one or two paragraphs, answer these questions: What led you to this work? What is the purpose of your inquiry?

What is your projected budget? (Grants are minimal – from $250 - $500)

What are your initial resources?

In addition to the February 8th Teaching Center Luncheon, how might you share your work?