Monday, January 18th

CANDLELIGHT VIGIL
7 p.m. • Meet in Beaman Student Life Center Lobby
In commemoration of the movement and Dr. King, Belmont students, staff, and faculty will walk in procession across campus and honor the life and legacy of Dr. King.

Tuesday, January 19th

KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY TIM WISE
"Colorblindness Was Not the Dream: MLK, Black Lives Matter and the Struggle for Racial Equity"
Co-sponsored with Sociology Department
5:30–7:30 p.m. • McAfee Concert Hall
In this presentation, Tim Wise examines the watering down of Martin Luther King’s message and the way in which this distortion of his message impedes the struggle for equity and justice in the twenty-first century.

Academic Convocation

Wednesday, January 20th

CHAPEL SPEAKER: DR. JOHN PERKINS
"Race Matters"
10 a.m. • Chapel
Dr. John Perkins is an American civil rights activist and an internationally known author, speaker, and teacher on issues of racial reconciliation and Christian community development.

Christian Faith Development Convocation

Wednesday, January 20th

MLK WORSHIP SERVICE
with the Black Students’ Association
6–8 p.m. • Chapel
Belmont’s Black Students’ Association leads this event, which promises to be an interactive, enlightening, and fortifying experience for the Belmont community.

Christian Faith Development Convocation

Thursday, January 21st

CAMPUS DIALOGUE ON RACE AND ETHNICITY
4–6 p.m. • Massey Boardroom (Massey – 4th floor)
Students, faculty, and staff will assemble for an open and frank discussion of how different people at Belmont experience race and ethnicity.

Personal Growth Convocation

Friday, January 22nd

ACADEMIC PANEL
“In the Beginning: A Discussion on the Early Years of Belmont Women’s Basketball”
Co-sponsored with Athletics, 125 event
10–11 a.m. • Chapel
Join Betty Wiseman, founder of the Belmont women’s basketball program, and some members of the first women’s basketball team as they talk about the early years of the program, including the impact of the racial climate of the 1960s.

Academic Convocation

Monday, January 25th

SELMA SCREENING
6 p.m. • Johnson Theatre
Selma (2014) is an American historical drama directed by Ava DuVernay and written by Paul Webb. The film is based on the 1965 Selma to Montgomery March for voting rights led by James Bevel, Martin Luther King, Jr., Hosea Williams, and John Lewis. After the film screening, Dr. Pete Kuryla of the History Department will lead a discussion on the film.

Culture and Arts Convocation